Howard E. Coffin on Imperative Demands of Aviation Branch Howard E. Coffin, who is chairman of the aircraft production board, tells us of the imperative demands in warbe that this war, which Germany has supremacy of the air." undertaken to win under the sea, may yet be won by Americans in the air. Says Mr. Coffin: "Dominance of the air has become vital to the success of any and all military operations.
Both batteries and troops are under the modern conditions of war, wholly dependent for effective direction upon the eyes of the air service looking down upon the field of operations from thousands of feet up in the clouds.

This dominance of the air is vital, but may be achieved only through the presence of aircraft of all kinds and in overwhelming numbers. This
